

THE SHAKESPEARE AUTHORSHIP COALITION

Signing Form for: the Declaration of Reasonable Doubt about the Identity of William Shakespeare

We, the undersigned, hereby affirm that we have read the Declaration of Reasonable Doubt About the Identity of William Shakespeare, and agree with its conclusion that the authorship issue should be regarded as a legitimate issue in academia.

Items 1 – 5 define how you want your name, and any other information that you choose to provide, to appear on the lists of signatories on the SAC website. Items 6 – 8 define information we may need to verify your identity, but which will not appear. (If you have already signed the declaration online, you may skip items 2 – 6 if you have already completed all of them online.)

Required items are indicated with an asterisk “*”

1. *Please print your full name, including your middle name or initial. Titles and degrees are optional. Title: _____

*Name: _____ Degree: _____

2. *In addition to the main list, might you be suitable for a short list of “notable” signatories; and, if so, may we list you as such?

Re: the short list, please check one of the following: Yes, and I give my permission No. (or) Yes, but I prefer not to (If yes, please be sure to identify yourself clearly in question #3.)

3. Position and affiliation, or a personal comment, to appear after your name on lists of signatories posted on the SAC website. (99 characters maximum):

4. *Are you a current or former faculty member at a college or university; and, if not, are you a college graduate? (Current and former faculty members will appear on the separate list of “academic” signatories on the SAC website.)

Please check one of the following: Yes, current or former faculty member Yes, college graduate No

5. If yes to either, what is your academic discipline or field? _____

6. *Email address: _____
(Your email addresses will not be shared with anyone.)

Okay to send the following by email: Occasional updates Annual Reports only No emails

We would also like your home address and phone number to help us confirm your identity. They will not be made available to anyone.

7. *Home address:
(Street address): _____

(City, State, Zip): _____

8. *Home phone number at the address shown above: _____

*Signature: _____ *Date: _____

Please mail to: The Shakespeare Authorship Coalition
310 North Indian Hill Blvd. #200
Claremont, California 91711

Please email inquiries to: SAC@DoubtAboutWill.org